

By the House of Delegates, March 13th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message relative to the Hospital, and concur therein. We have appointed Messrs. _____ of this house, to join the gentlemen named by the senate for the purpose therein mentioned.

Which was twice read, and the blank therein being filled with the names of Messrs. Done, Hawkins and Montgomery, it was agreed to, and sent to the senate.

Mr. Lansdale offered the following order:

Ordered, That when this house adjourns, it shall stand adjourned until the first Monday of October next.

Which was read, and laid on the table.

A message from the senate being announced, the clerk thereof appeared, and returned the bills and resolutions, sent from this house for concurrence, of the following titles, to wit:

An act to authorise and empower William Wailes, of Somerset county to appeal from the decision of the levy court of said county, relative to a certain road.

An additional supplement to an act relative to licenses, passed at December session 1824, chapter 148. And,

An act supplementary to an act, entitled, An act for the establishment and support of public free schools in the first election district of Baltimore county. Severally endorsed, "will pass."

Also, An act requiring the commissioners of lotteries to give bond; endorsed "will pass as amended."

Also, An act to explain the law in relation to clandestine removals, to avoid distress for rent; endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments;" which amendments were read the first and second time, by a special order, and severally assented to.

Also, a resolution in favour of Joseph I. Gilliss, and others, securities of Cord Hazzard, late sheriff of Worcester county.

A preamble and resolution, providing a compensation to Gideon Pearce, for the performance of the services required by a resolution of the general assembly, passed at December session 1825, in preparing a system in relation to officers' fees.

A resolution, for the distribution of copies of an index to the laws of Maryland, from 1819 to 1825, inclusive.

A resolution, in favour of William Kilty, chief clerk of the senate, and Gideon Pearce, chief clerk of the house of delegates.

A resolution, providing for the payment of George Shaw, for a copy of Ingersoll's Digest, furnished the senate.
